

Determine what the Bible teaches about this problem and obey it. Ask God for wisdom. Think creatively for a practical solution: this takes loving compromise in all your future actions.

Ask God's forgiveness and then ask your spouse to forgive you. Repentance, communication, and prayer together are essential.

To find the problem, first refuse to attack or retreat. Ask yourself what you have done wrong and the problem becomes obvious. Confess this to your spouse.

Both attacking & retreating.
(Acts 7:57)

Attacking each other.
(Gal. 5:15,26) (Prov. 12:18)

To find a lasting solution so this won't happen again. (Acts 6:1-7)

Resolving the problem.
(Eph. 4:32) (Acts 8:22)
(James 1:22-25)

Attacking the problem.
(Matt. 7:5) (James 5:16)
(Acts 6:1-7)

Retreating from each other.
(Luke 15:25-28) (Eph. 4:26)
